Look at the facts.

First, the covid jab. The UK Government now, at last, openly admits that the symptoms of covid - the re-branded flu - are the same as the flu or a common cold. But the threat of compulsory vaccination hasn't gone away. And yet the UK Government released a report showing that the fully jabbed account for 92% of all covid 19 deaths. The number of deaths among the jabbed is rising - but falling among the un-jabbed.

The triple jabbed are the people most likely to die. They seem to be acquiring induced Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome. As predicted a year or more ago, the jabs are now shown to be adversely affecting immune systems - making the jabbed more vulnerable to infection and cancer.

Figures in Canada show that the triple jabbed are five times as likely to die of covid as are the un-jabbed. In the US, figures from the CDC reveal that the jabs have killed 61,000 people aged 25 to 44. That's 3,000 more than the number of Americans who died in the Vietnam War and more than ten times as many as have died in Ukraine.

Insurance industry experts expect 84% excess deaths among millennials. A German insurance database of 11 million people shows a huge increase in illness as a result of the jabs. American figures show that covid jabs have increased miscarriages by 1,517 % if given during pregnancy. The figures are all online but don't expect to see them on the BBC site which has about as much connection with reality as a Dr Who plot.

Bought-and-paid-for doctors in the UK are now getting richer jabbing five-year-olds with the poison. In the US, 800,000 children aged 5 to 11 who were given the covid-19 jab had to miss school after they suffered severe side effects. And there were deaths from a jab that doesn't do what people claim it does.

Doctors in the UK get extra blood money for jabbing children. And of course now that the covid jab for 5-year-olds has been added to the mass of vaccines being given they'll keep on jabbing and add the covid jab to the schedule. No one has ever bothered to find out how these vaccines interact or what damage they do to the immune system. Check out my book on vaccines - it's called Anyone who tells you vaccines are safe and effective is lying. Everything in it is absolutely accurate, and no one will debate the scary contents. The book and I are banned by the BBC of course - and the rest of the mainstream media.

An MP who dared to stand up in the House of Commons and mention vaccine damage was shouted down faster than if he'd said that a woman's place is in the home, warming her husband's slippers. The same sort of thing has happened in America. Anyone, anywhere in the world, who quotes their own government's figures is denounced as a conspiracy theorist and an anti-vaxxer. The attack articles are written by naïve and ignorant journalists who know nothing and who never dare debate their ignorance.

The World Health Organization is proposing a new pandemic treaty which will give it power to force countries and their citizens to do as they are told. That's the start of a world government. Compulsory vaccination programmes will follow. And self-spreading vaccines are on the way.

China has closed down just about everything in the absurd belief they can permanently eradicate the rebranded flu. No one could be stupid enough to believe that. It's all part of the destruction that will enable them to complete the Great Reset. China is a vital part of the global supply chain. Goodbye to that.

And then, of course, there is 'long covid'. It's one of the major reasons nothing gets done any more. A month or two ago there were over one million people off work in the UK with long covid - two thirds of them off work for more than a year. Now the number is rapidly approaching two million. But the evidence shows that long covid is a psychological disease not a physical problem. It is a combination of hypochondria and malingering but it is being heavily promoted by governments because it's an excellent way to destroy economies around the world. Oddly, long covid seems rare among the self-employed but common among state employees and council staff. I bet it's commonest among the idiots who've been jabbed.

Remember: research has proved that long covid isn't a physical disease - it's a psychological problem. Governments have created and promoted long covid because it's a great way to bugger up the economy and create an ever deeper recession. It's also a good way to cover up the damage done by the toxic covid jabs. And, paradoxically, promoting long covid helps encourage more people to get jabbed because, bizarrely, they believe the jabs will stop them getting long covid. Politicians and journalists and self-appointed fact checkers don't bother with accurate research when it's inconvenient - which it always is these days. Second, consider the global warming hoax. The only thing warm about this nonsense is the hot air produced by pseudo-scientists, crooked politicians and bent journalists. Like covid, global warming is based on yet more fake science - which politicians and journalists won't debate in public. Those pushing the hoax know they have no science to support their absurd claims - global warming is leading us to the absurdity of net zero and to billions of deaths. And, by the way, the recycling scam was never anything more than an exercise in forced compliance. I've always refused to play the recycling game - just as I don't pay the BBC licence fee.

The global warming hoax is giving them the opportunity to get rid of fossil fuels and replace them with hydrogen - which is made with the aid of fossil fuels; to get rid of petrol and diesel cars and replace them with electric cars which are worse for the environment and which use electricity created with oil and gas and trees chopped up into pellets, imported and burnt instead of coal. And it is giving them an excuse to force 15 million house owners in the UK to make such massive and ruinously expensive changes to their homes that the only practical solution will be to knock down perfectly good, solid homes. The homeless will be forced into new, tiny, cardboard flats in approved city centres. Don't believe me? Check it out. It's all happening. And every new flat has a smart meter fitted. If you don't have a smart meter fitted you have to pay top prices for your electricity. Believe me, it's happening already.

Third, the war in Ukraine.

The war was blatantly triggered by NATO and the world duly introduced utterly absurd sanctions against Russia, and those sanctions have deliberately and predictably destroyed economies everywhere, pushed up oil, gas and food prices and created shortages which will lead to hundreds of millions of deaths in Africa and Asia. If that's not genocide then we need a new word for it. Fertilizer prices have quadrupled in no time at all and are now at their highest level ever. Africa relies on Russia for 70% of its fertilizer so the politicians who introduced those sanctions will kill a thousand times as many people as Putin...

Fourth, the destruction of the economy, through the sanctions, the absurd long covid, the deadly jabs, the massive debts built up as a result of the multi-billion pound covid frauds and the wicked nonsense of the global warming fraud is going to lead to a massive worldwide recession - far bigger than the recession of the 1930s. A covid vaccine festival held in London cost £500 for every jab given. What an obscene waste of money. Even the World Bank, a bad organization, has warned that the Ukraine war and sanctions will slow growth and increase poverty. No one in government or media cares.

It's all deliberate, of course. Millions will lose their jobs and never work again. Last year alone, 17,000 chain store shops closed in the UK and will never reopen. The basic income scheme already being trialled in Wales will spread, and the middle and working classes will disappear to be replaced by armies of forgotten and put upon drones. World trade and globalisation will soon be a thing of the past. The UK will suffer more than most countries. And thanks to that nasty oik, Trudeau in Canada your savings aren't safe. The word distrust is now fashionable. It means that the Government has the right to steal your assets and close your bank account if you dare speak out and share the truth.

Fifth, the disappearance of cash is accelerating. Another coincidence? Not likely. Thanks to the enthusiasm of the dim-witted collaborators who are still wearing their stupid masks, there are now fewer shops which will take cash. It's almost impossible to buy petrol or diesel without using plastic. The collaborators love their little cards because they don't see where it's leading. And as I warned last year, the Bank of England is introducing its own version of bitcoin.

But this one is special. It's all part of the digital currency world and the digital ID they're forcing on us. They're going to fix the fake currency so that you can't use it to buy booze if you are an alcoholic, you can't buy chocolate if you're overweight, no fast cars or racing bikes for anyone, and you can't buy anything if you're considered a bad person. Oh, and the digital currency will make it very easy for you to pay all your taxes and utility debts because they'll just help themselves to whatever they want....

Sixth, look at what has happened to health care. The bureaucrats who control health care as if they own it are driven by a hatred and contempt for us. There are more bureaucrats in the health service in the UK than there are nurses and beds. They mostly have expensive private health insurance ...

Seventh, look at education. Literacy and numeracy levels are at an all-time low among teenagers. Most school leavers cannot add up without a calculator and cannot read or write their own language fluently. The incidence of mental health problems among children of all ages is also at an all-time high. If you think this is all still a coincidence, then keep taking those tablets. School teachers and their unions cooperated in destroying the nation's education system by closing schools unnecessarily and by insisting that children be damaged with deadly and useless masks. A record number of children are now being referred for serious mental health issues. If they're lucky they might get an appointment to see someone in 10 or 15 years' time. And I hope you don't think I'm kidding. An official OFSTED report exposed how the covid-19 policy had devastated children's lives and hindered their development. Teachers and doctors and social workers and politicians should be arrested. But no one will be punished. We live according to Schwab's rules now.

Eighth, you might have thought that some comfort might have been provided by the churches. Not a bit of it. The Archbishop of Canterbury and the Pope both need defrocking and locking up. They have betrayed the people they're supposed to care for. The closure of churches and the removal of spiritual comfort at a time when people needed it most, was not just unnecessary and cowardly - in my opinion it was evil. The disappearance of traditional religion was all part of the plan, of course. Check it out. See the UN's plans for Chrislam.

Ninth, the increase in immigration is all part of the overall plan to homogenize cultures and destroy national identities. Tenth, those who think that the transgender controversy is an isolated problem still haven't woken up properly. Confusion is everywhere but it is clear that there is no future at all for women's sport. I don't care what Johnson may have said - transgender athletes are the future because that's the future the conspirators have chosen for us. Check it out. Meanwhile, everyone is suffering. The basic principle of the metaverse is that people can choose who they want to be. It's all part of the Great Reset: destroy families and traditional rights and freedoms. A transgender cyclist was harassed and demonised and refused permission to take part in a race even though she had provided medical evidence that she was eligible. Women fighting for single sex this or single sex that are fighting a losing battle. Their only hope is to become discredited conspiracy theorists, join us and fight the conspirators...

Finally, although it may feel like it at times, please remember that you are not alone. More and more people are waking up and once they are awake they don't go back to sleep.

If we are going to win this war then we have to fight hard and with determination and passion and the truth.

Distrust the Government, avoid mass media and fight the lies.
